ARTICLE I. NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1.01 Name

The name of the organization shall be Tucson Pima Collaboration to End Homelessness (TPCH). It shall be a common-interest collaboration.

Section 1.02 Purpose

Tucson Pima Collaboration to End Homelessness is a coalition of community and faith-based organizations, government entities, businesses and individuals committed to the mission of:

- a. ending homelessness;
- b. addressing the issues that contribute to homelessness;
- c. promoting equitable, person-centered solutions to homelessness;
- d. acting as the local Continuum of Care, as defined by the Federal Homeless Emergency Assistance and Rapid Transition to Housing Continuum of Care Program (24 CFR 578), including operating a coordinated entry system where active participation in the Coordinated Entry system is required for all TPCH members who are HUD funded

The Continuum of Care (CoC) is defined as and composed of the CoC Board, General Council, all committees and their subcommittees and workgroups, the CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant, and the HMIS Lead.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

Section 2.01 Eligibility for Membership

Membership shall be composed of two groups: Organizational Members and Individual Members. There are no dues or fees for membership.

- a. Any organizational entity which completes an organizational membership application and commits to TPCH's Guiding Principles and Code of Conduct may become a member. Membership forms must be updated annually between July 1 and September 30.
- b. Any individual who is not directly affiliated with an organizational member who completes an individual membership application and commits to TPCH's Guiding Principles and Code of Conduct may become an individual member. For the purpose of determining eligibility, direct affiliation is defined as employees, directors, and high-level volunteers. Membership forms must be updated annually between July 1 and September 30.

Section 2.02 Membership

Members may be elected to CoC Board and committee service, participate in General Council discussions, and participate in CoC projects and other activities. TPCH is committed ensuring diverse membership and participation within the Continuum of Care which reflects the population served by the Continuum of Care in terms of race, ethnicity, cultural affiliation, sex, gender, gender identity, disabilities, and other identities and experiences.

Section 2.03 Voting Privileges

Individual members are not eligible for voting privileges or counted toward quorum. Organizational members may vote on matters brought before the TPCCH General Council if a representative of the member organization has attended two (2) of the immediately preceding three (3) TPCCH General Council meetings.

- a. Organizational members with voting privileges shall have only one (1) vote in TPCCH business and elections.
- b. Members with voting privileges may make or second motions and vote on issues brought before TPCCH General Council for decision.
- c. The TPCCH General Council votes exclusively on the Governance Charter, CoC Board and committee elections, approval of the TPCCH Strategic Plan, and selection of the CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant and the HMIS Lead. General Council may vote on other issues as needed.

Section 2.04 Notification of Voting Status

The CoC Lead Agency/Collaborative Applicant will publish a list of members gaining voting privileges, at risk of losing voting privileges, and having lost voting privileges within 30 days following each General Council meeting. This posting is made publicly on the TPCCH website and through the TPCCH email distribution list.

Section 2.05 Resignation and Termination

Any member may resign by sending a resignation letter via email to the CoC Board Chair and/or CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant. A member can have their membership terminated by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership as prescribed in the TPCCH Code of Conduct.

ARTICLE III. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Section 3.01 Purpose

The purpose of the Conflict of Interest policy and procedures is to ensure that TPCCH decisions do not result in organizational, personal financial, professional, or political gain on the part of participants at the expense of the TPCCH and its stakeholders.

Section 3.02 Policy

Each member and/or member organization shall disclose their relationship to any agenda item of TPCCH meetings, Board meetings, or committee meetings requiring a vote during discussion of the agenda item. No member of the TPCCH may participate in a vote that could result in financial benefit to them personally or to the organization they represent.

Section 3.03 Definition

Conflict of Interest means an actual conflict, or the appearance of a conflict, between the private, professional, political, or financial interests of a participant or the organization that the participant represents while participating in TPCCH activities and decision-making. According to 24 CFR 578.95,

- a. Procurement. For the procurement of property (goods, supplies, or equipment) and services, the recipient and its subrecipients must comply with the standards of conduct and conflict-of-interest requirements under 2 CFR 200.317 and 200.318. (b).
- b. Continuum of Care board members. No Continuum of Care board member may participate in or influence discussions or resulting decisions concerning the award of a grant or other financial benefits to the organization that the member represents.
- c. Organizational conflict. An organizational conflict of interest arises when, because of activities or relationships with other persons or organizations, the recipient or subrecipient is unable or potentially unable to render impartial assistance in the provision of any type or amount of assistance under this part, or when a covered person's, as in paragraph (d)(1) of this section, objectivity in performing work with respect to any activity assisted under this part is or might be otherwise impaired. Such an organizational conflict would arise when a board member of an applicant participates in decision of the applicant concerning the award of a grant, or provision of other financial benefits, to the organization that such member represents. It would also arise when an employee of a recipient or subrecipient participates in making rent reasonableness determinations under § 578.49(b)(2) and § 578.51(g) and housing quality inspections of property under § 578.75(b) that the recipient, subrecipient, or related entity owns.

Section 3.04 Procedures

- a. At the introduction of each meeting, participants will disclose their name and agency affiliations.
- b. Prior to contributing to a discussion, whether verbal or electronic, each participant will disclose their potential conflicts of interest regarding the discussion topic before commenting.
- c. If one member thinks another member has a conflict of interest, that participant will state the reason for believing so. The other person will have the opportunity to respond. Both statements will be included in the minutes.
- d. The officer presiding over the meeting may require the member to abstain at the officer's discretion.
- e. Any participant who has a conflict of interest based upon the definition here must abstain from voting.

ARTICLE IV. CODE OF CONDUCT

Section 4.01 Purpose

TPCH believes that an organization's representatives have a responsibility to demonstrate the highest standards of ethical and accountable behavior, to set the tone and to foster the same conduct in others. Each participant accepts a responsibility to act in the best interest of TPCH as a whole. For this reason, our conduct and ethical behavior must be exemplary and free of impropriety.

Section 4.02 Public Availability

The Code of Conduct is posted on the TPCH website for public review at www.tpch.net.

Section 4.03 Violations and Remedies

The CoC Board will address any violation of this Code on a case-by-case basis. By a majority vote, the Board may take disciplinary action to remedy a violation up to and including severance of contracted relationships and/or removal from the CoC, Board, or other TPCB bodies.

Section 4.04 Code of Conduct

All members will adhere to the principles and policies and procedures of the Continuum of Care, including but not limited to:

- a. Review, understand and comply with all TPCB governance documents, policies and procedures.
- b. Promptly disclose any current or potential conflict as outlined in the TPCB Conflict of Interest Policy and Procedures.
- c. Report behavior that crosses ethical boundaries to the TPCB Board Chair in written or electronic form.
- d. Speak up when you disagree or have a question; participate fully in discussions; once an issue has been discussed and decided, support and defend the final decision.
- e. Think broadly of the entire community. Treat all members and constituents in a fair and consistent manner when participating in TPCB discussion and decision-making. Refrain from promoting personal interests or biases.
- f. Keep confidential any privileged or sensitive information gained by TPCB participation.
- g. Look for ways to collaborate with other local organizations and government agencies.
- h. Treat colleagues respectfully. Ask questions from curiosity and for clarification. Disagreements should focus on issues, not personalities or individuals. Look for ways to draw on the expertise of all members.
- i. Come to meetings prepared to be as knowledgeable as possible about the issues.
- j. Encourage innovation and improvement while respecting history and prior accomplishments.
- k. Be a good ambassador for TPCB. Look for the opportunities to educate community members/potential stakeholders about TPCB.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 5.01 Annual Meeting

An annual meeting of the members shall take place in the month of May. The specific date, time and location of which will be designated by the Chair. At the annual meeting the members shall elect members of the CoC Board, receive reports on the activities of TPCB, and review and affirm the direction of TPCB for the coming year.

Section 5.02 Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the members shall be known as General Council Meetings and shall be held at least four (4) times per year including the Annual Meeting. The date, time and location of regular meetings will be designated by the Chair.

Section 5.03 Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called by the CoC Board Chair or a simple majority of the CoC Board and/or CoC members with voting privileges.

Section 5.04 Notice of Meetings

Notice of each meeting shall be emailed to each voting member not less than one week prior to the meeting.

Section 5.05 Quorum

A quorum for an announced meeting shall consist of fifty-one percent (51%) of the entire voting membership.

Section 5.06 Voting

The TPCH voting members will strive to reach consensus on issues that come before the membership. A simple majority vote is required for the passage of all motions and elections except motions to limit debate, motions to close nominations, motions to object to the consideration of a question, motions to suspend the rules, and motions to remove a member from the CoC or a CoC body. In such cases, a super majority vote of 66.7% (2/3) shall be required to pass. Roll call voting will be used in regular and scheduled General Council meetings; signed ballots may be used for sensitive vote topics at the discretion of the CoC Board Chair.

Section 5.07 Electronic Voting (E-Voting)

Should a vote be required between meetings of the TPCH General Council, the CoC Board Chair may activate an electronic voting process. Electronic votes shall be cast by 5pm local time on the second full business day after the electronic vote was activated. Electronic votes are subject to quorum and the same voting rules as votes conducted during meetings of the body.

Section 5.08 Procedural Rules

Rosenberg's Rules of Order (Rev. 2011) shall be followed as the rules of order for voting bodies of TPCH to include the General Council, CoC Board, and Committees.

ARTICLE VI. CONTINUUM OF CARE BOARD

Section 6.01 Board Role and Size

TPCH members will elect the CoC Board to approve and oversee policy and direction of TPCH. Responsibility for implementation of policies and procedures remains with the committees of TPCH and the CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant and HMIS Lead. The Board shall have up to twenty but not fewer than fifteen (15) members. Board members do not need to have voting privileges at General Council to vote on board actions. The Board reviews and approves the annual Continuum of Care consolidated application. The Board considers recommendations regarding policies and procedures and ongoing operations of the CoC from the committees, workgroups, councils, General Council, and the CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant and HMIS Lead.

Section 6.02 Board Composition

The CoC Board includes seven (7) seats designated by the entity represented on the Board and approved by vote of the CoC Board; three (3) seats for persons with lived experience of homelessness and housing instability.

a. Designated- Seats

- i. Pima County – two (2) seats
- ii. City of Tucson – two (2) seats
- iii. Arizona Department of Economic Security – one (1) seat
- iv. US. Department of Veterans Affairs – one (1) seat
- v. Youth Action Committee – one (1) seat represented by two youth members

b. Appointed Seats

- i. Three (3) seats for persons with lived experience of homelessness and/or housing instability. Appointed seats may not be filled by staff members of agencies already represented on the CoC Board, and shall have experienced homelessness and/or received services through a homeless assistance program within the past seven (7) years.

c. Elected Seats

- i. General Council will elect not less than five (5) and up to ten (10) additional members to the CoC Board representing the varying interests of the CoC and as needed to fulfill the CoC’s strategic plan. The CoC Board shall annually convene an ad hoc nominating committee for the purposes of reviewing the CoC Board matrix, identifying under-represented sectors, recruiting prospective members, reviewing applications, and putting forward to the TPCCH General Council a slate of candidates for election. No single entity may be represented by more than two members on the CoC Board.

Section 6.03 Terms

CoC Board members are elected for terms of two (2) years. At the conclusion of their initial two-year term, Board Members are eligible to be elected for up to one additional two-year term. After completing two (2) consecutive elected terms, Board Members must wait at least one (1) year before applying for re-election to the CoC Board.

Section 6.04 Meetings and Notice

The CoC Board will meet at least monthly, at an agreed upon time and place, and an official Board meeting schedule will be posted on the TPCCH website. Each Board member will be sent an agenda and any supporting materials by email at least one week in advance of the monthly meeting as a meeting reminder.

Section 6.05 Board Elections

CoC Board members will be elected or re-elected by the TPCCH voting membership present at the annual meeting. In the event of a contested seat, the highest vote-getter(s) shall be elected. In the event of a tie vote for one or more available seats, the CoC Board Officers shall select the from the tie-getting candidates with a particular focus on promoting diversity in terms of expertise, experience, race, ethnicity, cultural affiliation, gender, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, and other relevant factors.

Section 6.06 Election Procedures

Any person residing or working in Pima County may apply to join the TPCB Board by submitting an application to the Collaborative Applicant by March 31 each year. The CoC Board will annually convene a nominating committee for the purpose of reviewing applications and recommending a slate of qualified candidates with brief biographical summaries for review and election by the General Council during the Annual Meeting.

Section 6.07 Quorum

Over fifty percent (50%) of Board members constitutes a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business.

Section 6.08 Officers and Duties

There will be three officers of the CoC Board: Chair, Vice-Chair, and Treasurer. The officers shall be elected from the CoC Board Membership at the first meeting of the new CoC Board for one-year terms. Staff will promptly announce election results by email. Officers are eligible to serve up to two consecutive terms within their term limits. After completing two (2) consecutive terms, an officer must wait one (1) year before serving another elected term as an officer of the CoC Board except in the case of the Vice-Chair who is eligible to serve up to one additional consecutive term in the role of Chair regardless of that officer's Board term limit. An individual waiting a year from an officer position may, if elected and otherwise eligible, chair a committee during the interim year. Outgoing CoC Board chairs may remain on the CoC Board for up to one year as a non-voting emeritus member regardless of term limit.

The duties of the Board officers are described in the TPCB Operating Policies and incorporated herein by reference.

Section 6.09 Electronic Voting (E-Voting)

Should a vote be required between meetings of the TPCB General Council, the CoC Board Chair may activate an electronic voting process. Electronic votes shall be cast by 5pm local time on the second full business day after the electronic vote was activated. Electronic votes are subject to quorum and the same voting rules as votes conducted during meetings of the body.

Section 6.10 Vacancies

The CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant will notify the TPCB membership of mid-year Board vacancies.

- a. When a vacancy exists, any TPCB member may apply or nominate a replacement by submitting an online nomination no less than two weeks (14 days) in advance of the next scheduled Board meeting.
- b. The CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant will send these nominations by email to Board members with the regular Board meeting announcement.
- c. The Board will vote as to whether to invite an application from the prospective candidate.
- d. If the application is solicited and approved, an election will occur at the next scheduled Board meeting. These vacancies will be filled only to the end of the vacating Board member's term.
- e. After completing that partial term, the newly elected Board member will be eligible to serve up to two consecutive terms of two (2) years each.
- f. Upon learning of changes to a Board Member's or their organization's role, the Board member must immediately notify the CoC Board Chair and/or CoC Lead Agency/Collaborative Applicant of such changes. The Board will review the change and determine what disposition is in the best interest of the TPCB.

- g. Vacancies will be announced, but not filled, March 1 – May 31 each year so that they may be filled during the annual election process.

Section 6.11 Resignation, Termination, and Absences

Section 6.12 Resignation from the Board must be in writing or email and received by the TPCH Board Chair and Collaborative Applicant. A Board member may be terminated from the Board due to two or more absences from Board meetings by a sixty-six percent (66%) vote of the remaining members. A Board member may also be removed for other reasons by a sixty-six percent (66%) vote of the remaining members as prescribed in a the TPCH Code of Conduct. Special Meetings

Any Board member can request a special meeting. They can make the request at a Board meeting, which would then be voted upon and require simple majority approval by the CoC Board. Any Board member can request a special meeting outside a Board meeting by emailing the Board Chair and/or CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant. An e-vote will be established by the CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant within two (2) business days of the receiving the request. Simple majority approval by the Board is needed for the request to pass.

ARTICLE VII. COMMITTEES

Section 7.01 Committee Formation and Purpose

The Board may create committees and workgroups as needed, in order to assist the Board and the TPCH in carrying out TPCH’s Strategic Plan goals and CoC policies. Committees may establish subcommittees or workgroups to assist in carrying out the work of the committee subject to Board approval. Once formed, all subcommittees and workgroups remain responsible to their parent committee. All committees, subcommittees and workgroups are responsible to the Board. While each committee is operating within its domain, they are able to make decisions on behalf of the CoC with the following exceptions:

- a) decisions that would also impact another committee's domain, and
- b) decisions with financial implications.

Section 7.02 Standing Committees

There are seven (7) Standing Committees of the Board: System Performance and Evaluation Committee; HMIS Committee; Continuum of Care Program Grant Committee; Coordinated Entry Committee; Youth Action Committee; Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee; and Lived Expertise Council.

Section 7.03 Committee Membership

Committee membership shall be limited to the number of seats and key sectors determined annually by the CoC Board documented in the TPCH Operating Policies and incorporated herein by reference. No individual may serve on more than two (2) standing committees at any time.

Section 7.04 Committee Member Selection

Fifty (50) percent of CoC Committee seats shall be elected by the General Council. In the event of a contested seat, the highest vote-getter shall be elected to the seat. The remaining seats shall be appointed by the CoC Board at its next regular meeting. The CoC Board is responsible for ensuring that such appointments result in committee membership which reflects the diversity of the population served by the Continuum of Care in terms of race, ethnicity, cultural affiliation, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disabilities, and other relevant identities and experiences.

Section 7.05 Election Procedures

The CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant shall issue a public call for committee member applications annually. Applications will be brought forward with brief biographical summaries to the General Council for election. Committee elections shall be conducted during the General Council Annual Meeting. In the event of a tie vote for one or more available seats, the CoC Board Officers shall select the from the tie-getting candidates with a particular focus on promoting diversity in terms of expertise, experience, race, ethnicity, cultural affiliation, gender, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, and other relevant factors.

Section 7.06 Meetings and Notice

CoC committees will meet at regular intervals as defined by the committee. An official committee meeting schedule will be posted on the TPCCH website. Each committee member will be sent an agenda and any supporting materials by email at least one week in advance of the meeting as a meeting reminder.

Section 7.07 Quorum

Over fifty percent (50%) of committee members constitutes a quorum of the committee for the transaction of business.

Section 7.08 Persons with Lived Experience of Homelessness and/or Housing Instability

Each committee shall have not less than two (2) seats reserved for persons with lived experience of homelessness and/or housing instability. Members serving under this designation shall be appointed by the CoC Board.

Section 7.09 Vacancies

The CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant will notify the TPCCH membership of mid-year committee vacancies.

- a. When a vacancy exists, any TPCCH member may apply by submitting an online application no less than two weeks (14 calendar days) in advance of the next scheduled committee meeting for which the person is applying.
- b. The CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant will send these by email to the appropriate committee chair and vice-chair along with a summary of the committee's current gaps in diversity in terms of race, ethnicity, cultural affiliation sexual orientation, sex, gender, gender identity, disabilities, lived expertise, and other relevant factors. The committees and CoC Board shall strive to fill vacancies with qualified individuals who enrich the diversity and expertise of the committee.
- c. The committee will vote as to whether to nominate candidate. If the application is not approved, the candidate may apply for a different committee.
- d. If the application is approved, the Collaborative Applicant will forward the application and nomination to the CoC Board for review during the next scheduled Board meeting. These vacancies will be filled only to the end of the vacating committee member's term.
- e. The Board will vote on whether to approve the candidate for the committee which the person applied for. If the nomination is not approved, the candidate may apply for a different committee, or the Board may recommend that the candidate apply for a different committee.

- f. After completing that partial term, the newly elected committee member will be eligible to serve up to two consecutive terms of three years each.
- g. Upon learning of changes to a committee members's or their organization's role, the committee member must immediately notify the TPCB Board Chair and/or CoC Lead Agency/Collaborative Applicant of such changes. The committee will review the change and make a recommendation to the CoC Board as to what disposition is in the best interest of the TPCB.
- h. Vacancies will be announced, but not filled, March 1 – May 31 each year so that they may be filled during the annual election process.

Section 7.10 Resignation, Termination, and Absences

Resignation from CoC committees must be in writing or email and received by the committee chair and/or CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant. A committee member may be terminated from the committee after two absences at committee meetings by a sixty-six percent (66%) vote of the remaining members. A committee member may also be removed for other reasons by a sixty-six percent (66%) vote of the remaining committee members as prescribed in a the TPCB Code of Conduct.

Section 7.11 Committee Chairs and Vice Chairs

Committee vice-chairs shall be elected for one-year (1) terms in April. Terms shall begin in July and end in June.

- a. Current committee vice-chairs will transition to the committee chair role upon the vice-chair's consent and a vote of ratification by the committee.
- b. In the event that a vice-chair declines the chair position or is not ratified by the committee, the committee shall elect from its current membership a new chair.
- c. Election results will be announced to the General Council Annual Meeting.
- d. An individual waiting a year from one committee chair position may, if elected or appointed, chair a different committee during the interim year.

Committee Chairs or Vice Chairs are expected to present written and oral reports of the committee's work to the CoC Board meetings on a quarterly basis and to attend all CoC Board meetings at which a recommendation or motion from the committee is presented. Committee reports shall include recommendations from the committee including supporting and dissenting opinions.

Committee Chairs and Vice Chairs or a designated proxy are expected to attend a Committee Chair meeting which will be convened by the CoC Board Chair and held no less than quarterly. This meeting will coordinate efforts of each committee, increase collaboration among the committee members, and prepare for presentations to the Board.

Section 7.12 Committee Voting

Committee voting shall be limited to elected/appointed committee members and shall be conducted in accordance with Rosenberg's Rules of Order.

Section 7.13 Committee Terms

Committee members serve two-year (2) terms. Committee members may serve two consecutive terms after which the member may not serve on the committee for a period of at least one year. The member may be elected or appointed to another committee during the interim year. The only exception to this rule is Vice-Chairs who may complete up to one additional year in the Chair role regardless of term limit.

Section 7.14 Community Participation

All committee meetings shall be publicly posted and any interested person may attend a committee meeting. All committee meetings shall include a call to the public in which such persons may provide input to any item on the agenda and/or request that the committee address an issue or take action in furtherance of TPCH objectives. Individuals deemed disruptive by vote of the committee shall be required to leave the meeting. Failure to do so may result in loss of TPCH voting privileges, membership, and/or prohibition against committee attendance at the discretion of the CoC Board.

Section 7.15 System Performance and Evaluation Committee (SPEC)

: The System Performance and Evaluation Committee (SPEC) shall be responsible for:

- a. Compiling and reviewing data to improve the performance of the entire Continuum of Care.
- b. Analyzing and sharing system performance data with the CoC Board and membership.
- c. Overseeing the process of conducting a gaps analysis annually; reviewing and sharing data from the gaps analysis with the CoC Board and membership.
- d. Working to enhance and expand community-wide services based on identified gaps and community need.
- e. Recommending to the CoC board proven strategies for prioritizing the use of Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG) funds; acting as the liaison between and among City, County, and State ESG funding sources.
- f. Evaluate the performance of the CoC Lead/Collaborative Applicant and HMIS Lead at least annually, and report evaluation findings to the CoC Board.
